TRAVELING PLAN (PROVISIONAL)

FLIGHTS

You will need to plan your trip so you can be in Venice Marco Polo Airport before 14:00 26th September.

26th of September at 14:00 the shuttle bus will depart from Venecia Airport carrying participants, luggage and bike luggage, so you need to make sure your flight arrives with enough time ahead. Once you are in Alleghe, you will not need to worry about anything else until the end of the route.

3th of October at 08:00, the shuttle bus will depart from Bormio to Milán Airport. The estimated arrival time is 12:00, so you will need to have your flights booked from that time or spend the night in Milán.

CAR

If you are travelling in your own car, you will leave it parked in Milán airport and find an alternative transport to Venecia Airport where the organization will provide a Shuttle bus.

BIKE RENTAL

You will have the option to rent with us a Bianchi Carbon 11 Speed Ultegra. The cost is 300€ for the whole route including the transport from Barcelona. We have limited number of bikes so contact us as soon as possible.

MASSAGES

We will have massages service at the end of each stage. This service will be paid directly to the soigneur. The number of spaces per day is limited and the booking needs to be done at least with 24 hours notice.

FAQ

Is EPIC DOLOMITI a race?

NO it's not. Epic Dolomiti is a 6 stage bike tour with no times or ranking. Each one will ride at its own pace with the group he finds comfortable with group levels.

Which cycling level do I need to have to participate in EPIC DOLOMITI?

Epic Dolomiti is a challenging route with a lot of climbing. If you go out every weekend with your club rides and you are at least an average cyclist, you will have no problem finishing the route. There will be 3 group levels to cater all abilities.

Is it possible to get lost?

It is very unlikely, but it could happen! The organization will provide you with an emergency card with a map and emergency contact numbers in case that happens. As well you will have the track of the route in your garmin. If we see that you are missing, we will have our vans searching for you immediately.

Do I need to bring with me any food?

You don't need to, everything is included in Epic Dolomiti. Breakfast and dinners are included in the hotels, and our feeding stations have everything you might need: water, coke, energy drinks, energy gels, bars, coffee, fresh fruit, dried fruits, sweets, cooked pasta, sandwiches...

What happens if I have a mechanical problem?

We have a mechanic in case you have a problem with your bike. In case there was a more important issue with your bike, we will carry a couple of spare bikes just in case.

Do I need accident travel insurance?

Yes you do, and it is mandatory. Your travel insurance must include bike tour as an included activity. If you don't have one, we will provide you with a quote for insurance for the route.

How do I pay for the trip?

Once you have made your booking through our website, we will send you our bank details to proceed with the payment.

Can I bring some companions?

Yes you can, but we have limited spaces for them. Contact us for more detailed information.
